

The Department of History
The University Visiting Lecturers' Committee
The History Graduate Students' Association
The Simone de Beauvoir Institute
The Département d'études françaises
The McGill History Department

present a

Public Lecture by

Dr. Karen Offen

Institute for Research on Women and Gender, Stanford University

on the topic of her forthcoming book

The Women Question in Modern France

Dr. Offen is one of North America's foremost feminist historians. Her works include Writing Women's History: International Perspectives (1991), Paul de Cassagnac and the Authoritarian Tradition in Nineteenth-Century France (1991), Women, the Family, and Freedom: The Debate in Documents, 1750-1950 (1983), and Victorian Women: A Documentary Account of Women's Lives in Nineteenth-Century England, France, and the United States (1981).

Monday, 7 March 1994

6:00 p.m.

Room H-767 (Faculty Club)

Hall Building

Sir George Williams Campus

1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West

Montreal

Free Admission

Concordia
UNIVERSITY